

Seaman Wilbert Dow

Sgt. Wil L. Santiago named Warrior of the Quarter Article

Defense Information School (DINFOS) names Sgt. Wil L. Santiago, U.S. Marine Corps as the Warrior of the Quarter.

The award represents the service member whose initiative, performance and dedication best exemplifies the warrior culture necessary to accomplish the command mission and support the services creed.

Santiago is an instructor at the Defense Information School, in the Visual Communication Department. The department educates students' in eight courses ranging from basic still photography to combat camera leadership.

A native of Ponce, Puerto Rico, Santiago enjoys spending time with his family, flying small aircraft and furthering his college education.

Santiago's personal philosophy towards his duties as an instructor is to "Always take care of your troops!"